

Nearby Parks

If you're having a great time here, don't forget to visit one of the three nearby state parks!

Cattail Cove State Park (18 miles) A quiet spot for river campers, this park offers a white sand beach, 32 primitive boat-in campsites, a boat launch area, and more park development on the horizon! The park has a trail for hiking and access to off-highway vehicle back-country roads. (928) 855-1223

River Island State Park (28 miles) This park is ideal for tent campers and provides a scenic respite, a desert escape, or a fun-filled water adventure. It offers campsites, ramadas, a sandy beach, cove, and boat launch area. The park has a trail for hiking and access to off-highway vehicle back-country roads. (928) 667-3386

Buckskin Mountain State Park (29 miles) Mountains line the river on both the Arizona and California sides, and the wildlife is as varied as the recreational opportunities along the river. This picturesque park provides a scenic respite and a fun-filled escape from the desert heat. (928) 667-3231

Arroyo-Camino Interpretive Garden

This interpretive area showcases the biodiversity of life that exists within the park and this area of the desert. Birds, lizards, and desert cottontails are common sights.

Boat Ramps

We invite all watercraft users to enjoy Lake Havasu, but we ask that you do so responsibly. Both Arizona and California share jurisdiction of these waters.

Boat Ramps

- PWC/Jet Ramp: Located in Lot 1 at the northern end of the park.
- North Ramp: Located at the north end of Lot 2B.
- South Ramp: Located at the south end of Lot 2B.
- Ramp 3: Located at the south end of the park in the Windsor Boat Parking area.

Non-motorized Watercraft

- Non-motorized watercraft may launch from any appropriate shoreline area or safely from any boat ramp.

PLEASE NOTE: Ramps may be closed during special events or emergencies.

Rustic Camping Cabins

Camping cabins are available for reservation. Each cabin has a covered porch looking out at the water. Cabins are furnished with a full-sized bed, two sets of bunk beds, a bar with chairs, electricity, lights, heating and air conditioning, and a locking door. Campers must supply their own linens or sleeping bags. Restrooms and showers are located in a separate building within a short walking distance. Cabins are limited to six people total. There is no cooking and no smoking inside of cabins. Pets are not allowed inside the cabins. There is limited parking, so visitors may pay an additional fee to park an RV. Tent camping is not allowed in the Cabin Loop.

Reserve a camping cabin and start your park adventure at azstateparks.com/cabins.

Hiking Trail

Mohave Sunset Trail: 1.5 mile trail, rated easy. This trail winds its way through the lowland desert and along the shoreline. Pedestrian traffic only. Bicycles and motorized vehicles are not allowed on trails.
