PATAGONIA LAKE

STATE PARK

11/24

Patagonia Lake State Park is an ideal place to find whitetail deer roaming the hills and great blue herons walking the shoreline. The campground overlooks a 265-acre man-made lake where anglers catch crappie, bass, bluegill, and catfish. Hikers can stroll along the beautiful creek trail and see a variety of birds such as the canyon towhee, Inca dove, vermilion flycatcher, elegant trogon, black vulture, and several species of hummingbirds. The park offers a beach, picnic area with ramadas, tables and grills, a creek trail, boat ramps, a marina, boat-in campsites, cabins, and the Lakeside Market.

The park is popular for a variety of activities, including water skiing, fishing, camping, picnicking, hiking, and is one of the best places for birdwatching in the world!

Thank you for visiting!

Cabins

Camping cabins that overlook Patagonia Lake are available for reservation. Each cabin has a covered porch, a full-sized bed, two sets of bunk beds, a table with chairs, mini fridge, microwave, lights, heating and air conditioning, and a locking door. Campers must supply their own linens or sleeping bags. Restrooms and showers are within walking distance. Cabins sleep up to six people.

Reserve a camping cabin and start your park adventure at azstateparks.com/cabins.

Fishing

Largemouth bass, flathead catfish, channel catfish, crappie, bluegill, and redear and green sunfish maintain healthy populations in the lake. Rainbow trout are stocked in the winter months. Fishing licenses can be purchased at the concession in the park. A valid Arizona fishing license is required for Arizona residents and non-resident anglers 10 years of age or older fishing any public accessible water in Arizona.

Lakeside Market

The Lakeside Market offers boat rentals, fishing licenses, bait, ice, and more.

Park Store

The park store is located inside of the Sonoita Creek Visitor Center. Visitors can purchase Arizona State Parks and Trails merchandise like t-shirts, mugs, and posters.
