

Nearby Parks

If you’re having a great time here, don’t forget to visit one of the two nearby state parks!

Granite Mountain Hotshots Memorial State Park (88 miles) Dedicated to the 19 Granite Mountain Hotshot firefighters who died in action on June 30, 2013, this park commemorates their service with a memorial trail that leads to an overlook in the Weaver Mountains and continues to the firefighters’ memorial site. (928) 669-2088

Buckskin Mountain State Park (105 miles) Mountains line the river on both the Arizona and California sides, and the wildlife is as varied as the recreational opportunities along the river. This picturesque park provides a scenic respite and a fun-filled escape from the desert heat. (928) 667-3231

Group Areas

Two group camping areas are available for reservations. Call the park directly to reserve. Group Area 1 has one 60 x 20 ramada, one large barbecue grill, a vault toilet, and a fire pit. There is a $30 facility use fee for this area and a $15 per night per vehicle fee. Group Area 2 has one 20 x 20 ramada, one large BBQ grill, chemical toilets, and a fire pit. There is a $30 facility use fee for this area and a $15 per night per vehicle fee.

We have two group ramadas for day use. One south of Campground A and one in Campground E. The sites can be used for large groups. Contact the park for details.

Alamo Lake State Park is one of the best places to fish for bass in Arizona. The lake is surrounded by mountainous terrain speckled with brush, wildflowers, and cacti, making for a visually pleasing experience. The park has good wildlife viewing opportunities, and you may spot a bald or golden eagle.

Stargazers are sure to enjoy the amazing views of the night sky since the nearest city lights are about 40 miles away!

The lake is located in the Bill Williams River Valley where the Big Sandy River and Santa Maria River come together. It was created with the completion of Alamo Dam in 1968.

Thank you for visiting!
