

DRIPPING

Kole Summerson

This cave is quiet
Other than the dripping water.
And the humidity,
Makes it much hotter.

This cave is dark
Other than the glistening water.
The reflection of this sight
Gives a shine of light.

The cave makes you feel
Different.
Especially the dripping water.
It could drive one insane
But if you let it in you,
It would feel great.
Because nature
Is just like a gate.

The water glistens
The water sings
The water brings
You, to feel complete.
The water drips,
And drips.

Until the water is gone,
Out of its purpose for the cave,
Dissolving its way
Making much things to save,
The water is
Always dripping.
