BUCKSKIN MOUNTAIN STATE PARK

Buckskin Mountain State Park commands one of the finest views along the Parker strip, an 18-mile stretch between Parker Dam and Headgate Dam. Mountains line the river on both the Arizona and California sides, and the wildlife is as varied as the recreational opportunities along the river.

The park has a campground, a beach, hiking trails, restrooms, showers, a boat ramp, picnic area, horseshoe pit, and a volleyball court.

In the summer, the park is a popular location for camping, boating, jet skiing, and swimming. In the winter, visitors appreciate the mild climate and enjoy camping, canoeing, fishing, and hiking. Buckskin Mountain State Park is a year-round destination.

Thank you for visiting!

Ranger Station/Park Store

The ranger station/park store carries fishing and camping items like boating supplies (life jackets, boat cushions, ropes, and anchors), and firewood. There are also great park-specific items like shirts, hats, patches, walking sticks, pins, books, and more.

Hiking Trails

Many visitors take advantage of the park's terrific network of hiking trails.

Lightning Bolt Trail: Starting at the park entrance is the steep and winding 0.5-mile round-trip that offers a wonderful view of the campground and the Colorado River.

Buckskin Loop: From the Lightning Bolt trail, visitors can access this 1-mile loop. A concrete pedestrian footbridge crosses Highway 95 and leads to three other one-way trails.

Buckskin Mountain Trail: A non-looping trail that breaks off from the Interruption Point Trail, traveling to a series of abandoned mines. Round-trip is less than 1 mile.

River View Trail: A 1-mile round trip trek to a scenic overlook.

Fishing

Sport fish for large and smallmouth bass or bottomfish for catfish and carp. Kids enjoy fishing for bluegill, sunfish, and crappie. A valid Arizona fishing license is required for anglers 10 and older.
