

Nearby Parks

If you're having a great time here, don't forget to visit one of the three nearby state parks!

Buckskin Mountain State Park (1.3 miles) Mountains line the river on both the Arizona and California sides, and the wildlife is as varied as the recreational opportunities along the river. This picturesque park provides a scenic respite and a fun-filled escape from the desert heat. (928) 667-3231

Cattail Cove State Park (13 miles) A quiet spot for river campers, this park offers a white sand beach, 32 primitive boat-in campsites, a boat launch area, with more park development on the horizon! The park has a trail for hiking and access to off-highway vehicle back-country roads. (928) 855-1223

Havasu Riviera State Park (25 miles) OPENING IN 2019 With high-end amenities including a marina, restaurant, camping cabins, and new RV sites, our newest state park is sure to be a lakeside destination.

Lake Havasu State Park (28 miles) The scenic shoreline of Lake Havasu State Park is an ideal place to enjoy beautiful beaches, nature trails, boat ramps, and convenient campsites. This spot is truly a watersport haven located near the famous London Bridge of Lake Havasu City. (928) 855-2784

RIVER ISLAND

STATE PARK

River Island State Park is ideal for tent campers and RVs and can provide a scenic respite, a desert escape, and a fun-filled water adventure. The park offers campsites, a ramada, a sandy beach and cove, and a boat launch.

The park also has a group camping site or group day-use area available for reservation.

Thank you for visiting!

Hiking Trail

Wedge Hill Trail: Approximately 0.5 mile in length, medium difficulty, and overlooks the Colorado River. Scenic overlooks include the river and Parker Dam. The trailhead is located east of the boat launch ramp.

Fishing

Sport fish for large and smallmouth bass or bottomfish for catfish and carp. Kids enjoy fishing for bluegill, sunfish, and crappie. A valid Arizona fishing license is required for anglers 10 and older.

Boat Ramp

Three boat ramp lanes are located in a calm cove. Launch ramp parking has 20 boat-length deep spaces.

NOTE: There is an island reef located in the center of the cove. Boaters should stay close to the cliffs to access the main river channel. Please observe all navigational aides and buoys.

Wildlife Viewing

Mammals that may be seen at the park include bobcats, ringtail cats, coyotes, and gray foxes.

Reptiles in the park includes coachwhips (red racers), king snakes, desert iguanas, and collared lizards.

Birds include red-tailed hawks, vermilion flycatchers, great horned owls, burrowing owls, turkey vultures, and egrets.
