

Program	Location	Description	Time
Bird Walk	Ranch House	Experience the best Southern Arizona Birding with Mary Ellen Flynn on a guided bird walk through the high desert of Oracle State Park! This program is by reservation only.	7:30-8:30 AM
Geology Hike	Group Use Area	Join Oracle State Park's volunteer geologist Tom Buckley, on a tour of the unique geology of the Santa Catalina Mountains. This program is by reservation only and for ages 18 and up.	8:45-10:45 AM
Snake Talk by Dennis Jex	Group Use Area	Volunteer herpetologist Dennis Jex presents "Close Encounters of the Reptilian Kind at Oracle State Park". See, touch and hold live snakes as you learn about their role in our environment!	11:00-12:00 PM
Astronomy Book Talk by David Levy	Ranch House	David is excited to share his journey as an astronomer and inspire a new generation of learners with his book Clipper, Cosmos and Children: Finding the Eureka Moment . Copies of the book will be available for signing!	12:30-1:30 PM
Astronomy Book Talk by Tim Hunter	Ranch House	Night Sky author Tim Hunter will be discussing his guide to beginner stargazing titled The Sky at Night – Easy Enjoyment from your Backyard . Copies of the book will be available for signing!	2:00-3:00 PM
Music on the Trail	Group Use Area	Hike the park geology trail like you've never hiked it before! Discover live music performances and our new geology information signs as you walk along the Bellota trail.	4:30-6:30 PM
Star Party	Ranch House	Join us for another world-famous Oracle State Park Star Party! Peer into one of the darkest skies found in the region to discover galaxies beyond our own!	7:00-9:00 PM

Also Happening:

Food Vendors "The Sweet Coqui" and "Malta Joe" will serve food from food trucks from 1-7 PM at the Ranch House

Final Notes:

Please bring your own folding chairs as seating is limited

FREE EVENT with PARK ADMISSION FEE ($7 per vehicle OR Annual Pass)